

Aircraft Enhancement Business Wins Lawsuit

(Hempstead, Texas – December 20, 2010) - A Waller County, Texas district court has determined that D’Shannon Products, Ltd. is the sole and rightful owner of a wide variety of upgrades for Beechcraft piston engine aircraft. The court also awarded D’Shannon and its owners $1,296,908.00 from prior holders of various Beechcraft upgrade rights for unpaid commissions, expenses and attorneys’ fees.

“This judgment vindicates our efforts to provide innovative, quality upgrades for owners of Beech Bonanza and Baron aircraft”, explained D’Shannon president Scott Erickson. “Now that we have successfully concluded this litigation, we can focus on our growth of our core business.”

Beechcraft Bonanzas (single piston engine aircraft) and Barons (twin piston engine aircraft) have been in production for decades and are some of the most popular and practical general aviation aircraft in existence. They are highly prized by individuals and businesses. The modifications made available by D’Shannon include additional fuel tanks, replacement windows, engine upgrades and performance upgrades, and gross weight increases. More information on D’Shannon’s business appears on its website, www.d-shannon-aviation.com.

D’Shannon was represented in the lawsuit by Coats & Evans, P.C. Coats & Evans represents clients in aviation lawsuits, aviation transactions and aviation-related administrative matters. The firm’s attorneys are pilots and have over 15,000 combined flight hours. For more information, contact Coats & Evans, 281-367-7732, or on the web at www.TexasAviationLaw.com. The photograph used in this press release depicts a Beechcraft Bonanza which features D’Shannon engine, window and tip tank upgrades.

- end -